

PacRep Announces School of Dramatic Arts Fall Semester at the Forest Theater

CARMEL, CA – August 6, 2021. PacRep Theatre's School of Dramatic Arts (SoDA) has announced its 2021 Fall schedule of theatre arts classes, offering quality training in a wide variety of theatre skills, in a safe and nurturing environment. Students explore and expand their talents, learning to express themselves on stage, as they build confidence and self-esteem. Classes are held Mondays through Saturday at the Forest Theater, at Mountain View & Santa Rita, Carmel. SoDA is committed to providing professional training in theatre arts and presenting quality entertainment for students of all ages. For info on Financial Aid, students should inquire with administrator Susanne Burns.

Students may register for multiple classes, online at www.schoolofdramaticarts.org

PacRep's Saturday Academy: SoDA's Fall 2021 Saturday Academy will focus on the classics. It will encourage students grades 1 through 12 to find and develop their own level of creative confidence through theatre. Utilizing the disciplines and techniques of the dramatic arts - speech, movement, pantomime, stage combat, historical characterization, improvisation, and more - students learn to enhance their awareness, self-esteem, and the ability to work with others towards a common goal. Starting with theatre basics, students advance to more challenging curricula on a year-by-year basis.
